

Expertise Your Client Can Count On

You are in the single best position to know whether your client has the technical knowledge, experience, and expertise to properly document their property losses in accordance with the requirements of the insurance policy, and then negotiate their claims with the insurance company's team of experts. Most insureds do not.

From the moment you introduce your client to Globe Midwest/Adjusters International after a property loss is reported, we put their needs first — always respecting the client relationship you have established with them.

AGENTS AND BROKERS

You crafted a great insurance policy
for your client.

We help them use it.

Dedicated Service Your Clients Can Trust

Whether it's addressing property damage, loss of business income, or both, our team of experts takes on the burden of what can be an overwhelming process for your client, keeping their claim on track while allowing them to stay focused on their business and family.

Our seasoned adjusters thoroughly review the policy to make sure the claim is properly presented in accordance with the policy requirements. By properly identifying all of the relevant coverages, extensions of coverage, and endorsements, we make sure your clients get the full value of the policy you crafted for them and are fully compensated for their loss.

In addition to our expert adjusting team, our in-house building estimators, forensic accountants, and personal property specialists are experts in their fields. They will prepare building repair estimates, calculate lost income, and document property losses, ensuring your clients' claims are supported by detailed valuations, resulting in better—and faster—settlements for your clients.

Our team of licensed professionals holds an expertise in every facet of the commercial claims process.

When you work with Globe Midwest/ Adjusters International:

- Your staff can focus on continuing to provide good service without being distracted by myriad questions about the claim process.
- We keep you informed every step of the way to ensure the client is well-served.
- We ensure that your client has a fluid claim experience and receives the settlement they deserve, reflecting positively on the job you did in customizing and placing their coverage in the first place.
